Translation and democracy

Thanks to translation, people can help build the European Union and contribute to its openness and legitimacy.

We translate from and into all the EU's 24 official languages

The legal basis

- Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union
Citizens have a right to address the official EU bodies in any of the EU's official languages and to receive a reply in that language.
- Council Regulation No 1/58
Regulations and other documents of general application shall be drafted in the official languages.

Translation as part of the legislative process

Translation is central to the legislative process

Translation and editing contribute to better policy and law-making

TRANSLATION covers all subject areas

Types of languages

English an EU language after Brexit?

- English is an official EU language since the UK and Ireland joined the European Communities in 1973.
- A move to change this would require unanimity, including from the representatives of Ireland and Malta.
- In the Commission, English remains one of the three procedural languages.

About IATE

IATE (Interactive Terminology for Europe) is the EU's terminology database. It has been used in the EU institutions and agencies since summer 2004 for the collection, dissemination and management of EU-specific terminology. The project was launched in 1999 with the aim of providing a web-based infrastructure for all EU terminology resources, enhancing the availability and standardisation of the information.
